

DEADLINE EXTENSION FOR CALL FOR ARTICLES FOR THE INAUGURAL ISSUE OF THE RWANDA LAW JOURNAL

Due to several kind requests, the Institute of Legal Practice and Development is announcing the extension of the deadline for submission of articles for inaugural issue of the Rwanda Law Journal. The new deadline is 30th November, 2018. We also welcome improvements (where need be) in already submitted articles but within the timelines of the extension period.

Please note that other components of the initially issued call for articles remain unchanged.
